The only Soviet troon quarters observed were in the Tribuswinkel castle area. A sketch is given below.

A road approximately 55 yards long which branches off the main Traiskirchen - Baden road, leads to the castle. It is blocked at the end by a wooden lattice fence. There is a sentry box nearby but no sentry was seen. An area of meadow and groves adjoins the castle to the east and is enclosed by a barbed wire fence which displays several signs bearing the German inscription "Verbotenes Gelaende." A few enlisted men were observed, otherwise there was little activity.

Three enlisted men wearing either black-purple or 2. black-red service colors came from the Tribuswinkel returned stor and entered the cestle. They carried tool boxes on their shoulders. Two U.S. type trucks,
